

Aerie Backcountry Medicine Wilderness First Responder Course

The Wilderness First Responder course is a 72-hour medic course that focuses on the diagnosis and stabilization of injuries that occur more than two hours from hospital or ambulance. All of the information can be transferred to common everyday injuries as well. Those who complete this course will earn a national certification that is a standard requirement for many outdoor-based jobs such as summer camps, schools, wilderness guides, ski patrols, etc.

Location: United World College; Montezuma, NM
Date: July 26th - August 3rd 2010 (no classes on the 30th)
Hours: 8:00 – 5:30 daily
Certification Duration: 2 Years
Course Registration and Fees:

Full Course

Earlybird Registration: postmarked by June 1 st	$475
Regular Registration: postmarked by July 1st	$525
Late Registration: postmarked by July 15 th	$550

Room & Board options:

Camping available on site (no cost). Basic cooking facilities available for cooking personal meals. Hotels and restaurants in Las Vegas, NM (5 miles from school)

To register, fill out the form below or contact Sharon Seto at: 505-454-4206 or sharon.seto@uwc-usa.org.

To register for the Wilderness First Responder Course to be held at United World College from August 4 to 12, 2008, please fill out this form and return it to:

Sharon Seto, United World College, PO Box 248, Montezuma, NM 87731
Phone: (505)454-4206 Fax: (505)454-4274 e-mail: sharon.seto@uwc-usa.org

Name : _____ Phone : _____

Organization : _____

Address : _____ E-mail : _____

____ I would be interested in camping.

Method of Payment : __ Check (payable to United World College)

Charge to Visa or MasterCard or AmEx or Discover

Card number (required) _____ Expiration date (required) _____

Name and Address of Cardholder (if different from registrant) _____

Signature of cardholder (required) _____