

SUPPORT FOR CHILDREN IN THE ARTS

Each of us has a child inside who has wanted to be in a play. Young people today are still thrilled & ready to learn through drama & the arts.

Children's theatre helps keep alive the rich, cultural stories which made up a child's entire education in olden times .

TeatroJoven-YoungTheatre

Acting, Games & Art Projects

TeatroJoven~YoungTheatre is an independent theatre and arts education company dedicated to expressive arts education, performance and publication of plays particularly for young children, with some projects for teens and older folks too. We offer an integrated arts education program with cultural history, drama, singing, movement, games, creative writing, visual arts and stagecraft to help young people develop self-confidence and self-expression in summertime as well as after-school projects.

Since April 2009 TeatroJoven has produced the following plays in Las Vegas, NM :

Aesop's Fables: The Dog & The Wolf; The Fox & The Crow;

The Hare & The Tortoise;The Lion & The Mouse; Wolf, Wolf; The Ant & The Dove

Kipling: The Cat Who Walked by Himself

Navajo Tales: Turkey and the Seeds, a Navajo Story

Summer play 2010: June 21 - July 24
The Rainbow, a Sioux Story

To fit comfortably into the budgets of young families in the Las Vegas area, tuition for TeatroJoven workshops is kept as low as possible.

We provide arts education only because of community, tax-deductible giving to the Young Theatre Production Fund handled by our fiscal sponsor, the Las Vegas Arts Council.
[over]

SUMMER 2010:Acting, Games & Art
Project

-- June 21th - July 24th --

[3 days a week for 5 weeks, 4 hours each day = 60 hours of instruction at $4 per hour]

12-16 children will perform for 2-3 audiences of 20-50__

-
We Need Your Help

Our tuition of $120 for one child to enroll does not cover the basic costs or allow for any scholarships.

In 2009 community contributions provided 25 part or full scholarships for children to take part in our art and performance workshops.

>> Theatre production expenses involve:
space rental; equipment for lights & sound: audio amplification & recording; still or video camerawork, game equipment; art and office supplies; cost of professional services; personnel fees for : fund raising, script writing, public relations, program administration [this includes student recruitment, public relations, record keeping, scheduling and communications, production management, class design and instruction, play direction]; and refreshments. <<

Contribute to our Young Theatre Production Fund

..We Welcome Gifts of -ANY- Size..

Your tax deductible contributions may be sent to:
YoungTheatre\LasVegasArtsCouncil, POBX 2603,
LasVegas,NM 87701

Thanks to these Community Supporters of TeatroJoven:

First United Methodist Church - office and rehearsal space; Tome on the Range Bookstore - performance space; West Las Vegas and Las Vegas City Schools help promoting our programs; First Presbyterian Church - start up Mustard Seed Grant; Community 1st Bank - grant for scriptwriting; and private individuals for their gifts.

By far our strongest supporters are families who enroll their children in drama; and it is often not easy for them to come up with the tuition.____

For more information:

Caroline Rackley, director:
[home] 505.425.6092 [cell] 505.948.2187
Francine Lujan, production assistant: 454-3841
designultd@newmexico.com